MORE BLOODY WORK.

Bay View, Wis.

Milwauker, May 5.—Reports from Bay
View say the the militia fired on the mob school boy, who had his school books under his arm when he fell. While the trouble as going on at Bay View, a large crowd was going on at Bay View, a large crowd of Socialists and strikers assembled at Milwaukee Garden, West Side, and were preparing to carry out a programme of riot and destruction. A platoon of sixty policemen and three infantry companies were dispatched there and cleared the premises. The rioters, or those of Polish nationality at least, returned to the city, South Side, and proceeded to sack the residence of Captain Borchardt, of the Kosciusko Guards, yesterday's firing having been done by that company. The residence is a complete wreck.

The mayor is confident of his ability to preserve the peace of the city without outside aid.

U. S. Troops at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 6 .- On orders from the War Department two companies U. S. reg-ulars (two hundred men) left Columbus last night at 8:15, on a special train, and arrived at the Little Miami depot this norning at 12:20. They were drawn up in morning at 12:20. They were drawn up in the depot, and after some consultation on the part of the officers the men were formed in line and marched out of the de-pot and over the Newport bridge to the barracks, where they were quartered for the night. It was expected that the men would be cared for in the post-office build-ing, but the accommodations not being ready, they were ordered to the barracks.

Socialist Leaders Arrested.

CRICAGO, May 5.—Spies, Fielding and Schwab have been arrested. The police searched for the three men all night, but did not succeed in finding them. A little did not succeed in finding them. A little after 8 o'clock this morning all were found in a close room in the office of the Arbeiter Zeitung newspaper at No. 107 Fifth avenue. They were in consultation when the officers came upon them. They exhibited alarm but showed no resistance. They were taken quickly to the central police station. They are kept closely guarded, and no one is permitted to see them. It is not known what, if any, charges are made against them, and what is the exact policy the city authorities intend to do.

VOL. XIX-NO. 26. MONUMENTS UNVEILED At Savannah, Ga., to the Tune of the Boxnie Blue Flag, Marching Through Georgia and Yankee Doodle.

BAVANNAR, Ga., May 6.—The festivities attending the reception to Jefferson Davis, the centennial reunion of the Chatham Artillery, and the competitive drill culminated today in great style. Mr. Davis this afternoon reviewed the troops, about three thousand in number, from the balcony of the Exchange. It was noticeable that while the old chieftain stood wreathed by Union flags and under their fluttering folds, a band went by playing "Marching Through Georgia." When the great crowd gathered in the Central square for the ceremonies of unvailing the Greens and Pulaski monument, the bands came marching in quick steps to the rollicking notes of "Yankee Doodle." It was the first time that tune has been heard south of Mason and Dixon's line in thirty years. It was greeted with laughter and roars of applause. Said a Confederate officer: "That is the first time I have heard that tune since I was a boy in college in the North. It does my heart good to hear it here. Now it has got here it will stay. Bully for Yankee doodle" Mr. Davis pulled his cigar out of his mouth as the Yankee Doodle Company, dressed in the full continental uniform of 1776, came by, and bowed and smiled as the crowd yelled. There was one sturdy hurrah heard, and that came from a Dubuque (Ia.) company with the Union flag. The Confederate flag, "Dixie" "Yankee Doodle." "Marching Through Georgia," and "Bonnie Blue Flag," and Jeff Davis bowing to it all, one could become sufficiently full of contrasts. The evening closed in a big pyrotechnical display. Kansas Citt, Mo., May 6.—A terrible hall-storm prevailed on the line of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe raliroad, near Florence, this afternoon. Fifty-four panes of glass were broken on the California express train on that road, including all but a solitary window on the north side. The stones were of immense size, some measuring four inches in diameter, according to the report of a train man. The storm lasted an hour and a quarter. An immense rain-fall succeeded, the rain flooding the country for miles.

Osage Citt, Kas., May 6.—The heaviest rain and hail-storm ever known in this part of Kansas took place to-day. It began about il a. m., and continued for thirty minutes. The ground was covered with hail-stones, and in many places they were piled up several inches deep. Eighty per cent. of all exposed window glass on the north side of houses was broken.

strike is ended. It was brought to a happy ermination this morning by the accep tance by the men of the terms offered by the railroad companies, viz., $1.35 a day to truckmen and $1.45 a day for locaters and carmen, fifteen cents an hour for overtime. Sunday work to be paid for as overtime, and no deduction of the men's wages for the time they have been on a strike. This last was offered this morning and was looked upon as a generous concess the part of the railroads.

Incendiary Plot Discovered.

CHICAGO, May 6. - A secret plot among ern section of the city, to start incendiar fires in the lumber districts, was revealed to the police by a man in the employ of detectives late last night. The plot included preparations to cut the hose of the fire department and disable the engines when they responded to the alarm. The preparations of the police are ample to cope with the incendiaries. An extra fire tug will be sent up the river and the diatrict will be carefully patrolled.

CONGRESSMAN KELLEY

Says a Few Words on the Labor Troubl WASHINGTON, May 7. - Congressman Kelley, of Pennsylvania, is quoted as say-ing: "These labor troubles are primarily caused by the capitalists, who, refusing to pay fair wages to American laborers, have gone abroad and brought to this country the vilest and lowest class of European laborers to take the places of men who can not and will not live the same as these ignorant and brutal creatures do. The thing to be done is to make eight hours a day's work and put in the penitentiary the capitalist who will permit his machinery to run a longer period than eight hours per day. Then legislate to exclude from this country the class of men who are responsible for such outrages as have occurred in Chicago. I have no sympathy with Anarchists, dynamiters or Communists, nor have I any sympathy with the capitalists who will import labor of this class rather than pay good wages to American workmen." Congressman Rice, of Massachusetts, said: "I believe that the Government should put down with the strong arm of power every attempt at violence such as has been fomented in Chicago by those who have come from Europe."

In order to find out whether the opinion of other prominent members of the bar sustained or not the conclusions of the State's Attorney, several well-known members of the bar have been interviewed. The opinion of all of them, without any exception, is that so far as they know what the evidence is, it is fully sufficient to secure the conviction of all three men. They also hold that the evidence is sufficient to secure their conviction for murder and the infliction of the death penalty. resulted in the destruction of several lives

Large Number of Muskets and Red Flags Found in Zepf's Hall-Seditious Cirthe Arbeiter-Zeltung.

CHICAGO, May 6.—August Spies is under rrest. He was captured by the police vesterday morning. The Anarchist and in-cendiary editor of the Arbeiter-Zeitung, who was the first one to address the meeting at Des Plaines and Randolph streets; who occupied the wagon from which it is charged the bomb was thrown Tuesday night; who was one of the speakers at mob meeting on the prairie rords inflamed the mob until it was ready to burn down the great factory, had the emerity to appear in the editorial rooms of his paper yesterday morning. Here he met his brother and a man named Schwab, an associate editor of the paper, who were his the scenes of Tuesday night, and were taken by detectives to the Central station and locked up. They were at 107 Fifth avenue, to talk over locked up.

As the news spread through the city that the leaders of the Nihillstic mob were safely caged, expressions of the liveliest satisfaction were heard on every hand. The happiest men over the affair were the police, though their gladness was of a grim sort. The officers remembered the dynamite bomb, the one dead and the many wounded by the officers.

bomb, the one dead and the many wounded brother officers.

Spies and his friends, when the police charged the mob, slunk off and could not be found until yesterday morning, although an earnest search was made for them all night. The Arbeiter Zeitung, the organ of the Socialists, is printed in the third story of a building at 107 Fifth avenue, the story of a building at 107 Fifth avenue, the lower floor of which is a saloon. The editorial rooms are on the second floor and it was there that the five detectives found Spies Wednesday morning. Spies is the responsible editor.

When the detectives entered he was in a room with his brother, Chris, who is a furniture maker, and Michael Schwab, associate editor of the paper. The Socialists said not a word as the officers threw open the door. Detectives Bonfield and Duffy entered first.

"Are you August Spies?" Bonfield in-

"Are you August Spies?" Bonfield in-quired, directing his look at the Anarchist. Spies' thin lips parted in a sickly smile, and he displayed two rows of shining white teeth. He hesitated a moment before speaking, and with the artful tact of a speaking, and with the artful tact of a malevolent disposition gave the officers the full benefit of his tantalizing smile. At length his lips moved, and in a weak, husky voice, in alarming contrast to his smile, he made answer: "Yes, I am August Spies." "Well," replied Bonfield," we want you -- and you, too," said the officer, turning to Spies' brother and Schwab.

The latter was deathly white, and his hands trambled as he not on his het.

hands trembled as he put on his hat. Chris Spies was inclined to be ugly. Duffey asked him his name.
"None of your business," said he. "Well, you get ready quick and come to Spies said nothing more, and the other two submitted to being led down stairs without uttering a word. August Spies wore a black suit of clothes and a Prince Albert coat. His eyes were red, and he looked as though he had been up all night.
They were marched to the Central station.
While the prisoners were being searched they seemed the very pictures of arrant cowardice. The officers were too indignant to speak, and while the men's clothing was eing overhauled simply glared at them as if it would be a pleasure to annihilate then on the spot. Orders were issued to allow no one to speak to the prisoners.

Immediately after Spies and his brother and Schwab were locked up, Detectives Meyers, Jones and Flynn were dispatched to the Arbeiter-Zeitung office, with instruct tions to search the premises for any crimi nating evidence. Almost the first thing they discovered was a huge pile of the circulars calling a mass-meeting at the Hay Market, on Randolph street. This circular was printed in English and German, and is as follows:

Attention, workmen! Great mass meeting to night at 7:30 o'clock, at the Hay Market. Randolph street, between Des Pla'nes and Halstead. Good speakers will be present to denounce the latest atrocious act of the police—the shooting of our fellow-workmen Monday afternoon.

These circulars were found in the composing room, and for the first time the po-posing room, and for the first time the po-lice obtained positive proof showing the origin of the inflammatory Socialistic litera-ture. Further search brought to the light the form on which another circular had been printed, and in which workingmen were incited to take up arms.

Sam Fielden, the rabid anarchist, and companion of August Spies, is also under arrest. He it was who spoke the last words to the mob Tuesday night, which led to the Prominent Minnesotan Cremated.

Pittsburgh, May 7.—The remains of Thos, J. Barnay, a wealthy and leading citizen of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in this city Inspector Bonfield, with a squad of men from the Central, raided Zepf's hall, corner Lake and DesPlaines streets. In the hall were found a lot of muskets and red flags. There were also a lot of pamphiets and books, mostly in German, expounding Socialistic doctrines. A large amount of cor-respondence was also found. The hall and saloon beneath were closed by the police. for him was kept up all night, but not th slightest trace of him could be found. De tective Marks saw Parsons run in through the crowd when the bomb bursted, and disappear. He had just exclaimed: "Workingmen, to arms! I am a Socialist from foot to head, and I will be one if I die before morning." Since that moment he has not been seen by the police.

A SUGAR SUBSTITUTE

Substance Extracted from Coal To Which Is Sweeter Than Sugar. Mr. Ivan Levinstein, the President of the Manchester section of the Socie ty of Chemical Industry, calls attention to a new substance which is extracted from coal tar, and possesses sweetening properties far stronger than the best cane or beet-root sugar. This substance, he says seemed likely to enter into daily consumption. According to Mr. Levinstein, one part of it will give a very-sweet taste to ten thousand parts of water, for it is two hundred and thirty times sweeter than best sugar, and taken in the quantities added to food as sweetening material, has no injurious effects whatever on the human system. Patients suffering from dia betes have been treated for the last

From Draughts of Carbolic Acid.
CHICAGO, May 9.—Two more of the and Shehan, making five altogether. The latter died to-day and the former last night at the county hospital. The circumstances of Flavin's death were particularly gress be similarly extended. An original bill was reported providing for the report of all preemption and timber culture laws. Senators Riddlebarger and Ingalls denied a statement in a Washington paper that the opposition to the confirmation of Matthews, the new Register of Wills for the District, was on account of his color. They also denied conversations on this subject attributed to them. The postoffice appropriation bill was taken up and debate upon the subsidy amendment continued. Mr. Vest and Mr. Beck spoke in opposition, Senators Eustis, Ingalls and Miller in favor. The arrangement for a vote to-day at 4 o'clock was postponed until to-morrow. At 6 o'clock the Senate went into executive session, and at 6:10 p. m. adjourned. distressing. His faithful wife, who has onstantly stood at his side and watched him grow weaker from day to day, came from his room in ward five a few minutes after four o'clock almost distracted. In a pitiful voice, while tears dropped from her sleepless eyes, she moaned: "He has gone! he has gone! Oh, my darling; if I could only go with him! What shall I do?" A Sister of Charity tried in vain to comfort the bereaved woman, but her loss was too great to listen to kind words. Late last night a startling story was circulated relating how a just, speedy and terrible retribution had overtaken a number of the foremost rioters of Tuesday night. The story is now confirmed by the police, and is the source of no little satisfaction to the comrades of the martyred policemen. When the drug store of Samuel Rosenfield, on the corner of Center avenue and Eighteenth street, was raided by the mob of Anarchists last Wednesday, some of the leaders took the opportunity to rob the store of all the liquor it contained, and it is now asserted by the police, upon the evidence of physicians in the neighborhood, that not content with the whisky and wine stolen, the rabble seized upon every bottle that had the appearance of being the receptacle of spirits. A large bottle of carbolic acid was among the others carried away, and, owing to its color and general resemblance to whisky, it was passed from hand to hand after the raid, and drank by a half-dozen or more of the mob. The acid began to take effect as soon as it entered the stomachs of the rioters, and in spite of the best efforts of doctors and emetics two of the drinkers are dead and three more are at death's door. him grow weaker from day to day, cam from his room in ward five a few minutes

House.-The resignation of Congres BALTIMORE, May 9.—General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights' of Labor, acting under the authority vested in him by the General Executive Board, has issued a call to the various assemblies of he order for a special session of the General Assembly to be held in Cleveland, O., Tuesday, May 25. The causes leading to the calling of the session are given as follows: 1. The rapidly increasing membership of the order requires changes in the laws which the General Executive Board have no authority to make. 2. The laws in relation to the government of boycotting are wholly inadequate to compel obedience on the part of assemblies that believe in boycotting for every offense, whether great or small. 3. The laws in relation to strikes do not give the general executive board power to interfere in such matters until after the strike has been inaugurated. 4. The order has become involved in difficulties with trade societies and an effort is being made to create a rupture between these societies and the Knights of Labor. ral Assembly to be held in Cleveland, O.,

Columbus, May 4.—Senars.—The business of the Senate was delayed for nearly an hour this afternoon in a discussion of the relative merits of the two reports from the non-partisan sub-committee, which were made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. Van Cleaf wanted the journal corrected so as to show that the report submitted by him on behalf of the three Democrats of the sub-committee was offered as a substitute to the Republican report submitted by the three Republican report submitted by the three Republicans. Mr. Van Cleaf insisted that his report was offered as a substitute. He was supported in his assertion by Measrs, Dodd, Lawrence, Cable and Crites, and Mehaffey, all Democrats. Mr. Rannells (R.), raised the point of order that the report could not be a substitute after the first report bad been postponed, and there was nothing before the Senate. Mr. Pavey's recollection was that the two reports were laid over side by side, as it were. Mr. Crites thought the second report ought to be considered the minority report. Mr. Fassett said there seemed to be a disposition to faisify the records on the part of the Democrats. This called forth the wrath of Mr. Lawrence, who pronounced the statement an unwarranted one. Mr. Codding's recollection was that Mr. Van Cleaf said nothing about "substitute" in submitting his report. The latter agreed to withdraw his objection to the journal, provided the Chair would agree to consider the report as the substitute when the special order comes up to-morrow. This was agreed to, and the Senate proceeded with its routine work.
